

Smiles, Unsmiles And Weaponry

by DorothyMcCardle and Jeannette Smyth

[On state dinner for Prime Minister Zulfikar Ali Bhutto, which included the Agnews. "The White House appeared to make some effort to protect Agnew from the press. The first indication was a sudden shift in protocol that kept the Vice President out of the limelight when the Nixons and their guests descended the grand staircase to pose for official pictures "]