

Nixons' at Camp David

Washington

President Nixon returned to Washington last night from his mountain-top retreat at Camp David, Md.

Aides said Mr. Nixon studied congressional action on the military procurement and trade bills. He had left the White House Saturday after the swearing-in ceremony of Henry A. Kissinger as Secretary of State.

Mrs. Nixon and their daughter and son-in-law, Julie and David Eisenhower, spent the weekend with him.
