Kleindienst Says U.S. Aide Misled Him in Texas Case

By MARTIN WALDRON

Special to The New York Times

DALLAS, Oct. 2 — Former | Gray an Assistant Attorney Attorney, General Richard G. General. Kleindienst testified in a hearing here today that the United Deputy Attorney General, said States Attorney for South Texas, Anthony J. P. Farris, did not follow instructions in granting immunity to the central figure in a Texas stock scandal that rocked the state government in 1971.

In the scandal, Frank W. Sharp, a Houston speculator, was accused of manipulating insurance company stocks and causing the $50-million failure recall any other names.

causing the $50-million failure recall any other names. Houston bank. The Government said at the time

Texas politicians "smacked" of bribery.

Mr. Kleindienst said he had authorized immunity for Sharp only after being assured by Mr. Farris that he had nailed down exactly what testimony Sharp would give against the Texas politicians involved in one or more of Sharp's fields.

"I was very upset." said Mr. $120,000 in an insurance company stock deal set up for them by Sharp.

Mr. Kleindienst said that he had told Mr. Farris that he wanted in writing exactly what Sharp proposed to testify. A few days later, he said, Mr. Farris telephoned to say that the requirements had been met, and the immunity was approved.

more of Sharp's fields.
"I was very upset," said Mr.
Kleindienst, to learn that Mr.
Farris had not done so and that he proposed removing Mr.
Farris from the investigation.

The telephoned to say that the requirements had been met, and the immunity was approved.
Sharp then went before a federal, judge and pleaded guilty to two counts of fraud and was placed on probation.

Mr. Whindiener said be found.

Denies Political Angle

Denies Political Angle

The former Attorney General denied that one goal of the investigation was to destroy the Texas Democratic party to make it easier for President Nixon to carry Texas in the 1972 Presidential election. Politics played no part in the interpretation out some weeks later that Mr. Farris had not carried out his instructions and that he began him from the case. Mr. Farris has been ordered by Judge Taylor not to discuss the care before he textified in the case he found out some weeks later that Mr. Farris had not carried out his instructions and that he began him from the case. Mr. Farris has been ordered by Judge Taylor not to discuss the case he found out some weeks later that Mr. Farris had not carried out his instructions and that he began him from the case. Mr. Farris has been ordered by Judge Taylor not to discuss the case he for the case has a discussion at the case. Mr. Farris has been ordered by Judge Taylor not to discuss the case has a discussion at the case. Mr. Farris has been ordered by Judge Taylor not to discuss the case has a discussion at the case. Mr. Farris has been ordered by Judge Taylor not to discuss the case has a discussion at the case. Mr. Farris has been ordered by Judge Taylor not to discuss the case has a discussion at the case. Mr. Farris has been ordered by Judge Taylor not to discuss the case has a discussion at the case. Mr. Farris has been ordered by Judge Taylor not to discuss the case has a discussion at the case.

make it easier for President
Nixon to carry Texas in the 1972 Presidential election. Politics played no part in the investigation, he said.

The former Texas attorney general, Waggoner Carr, and five offier lawyers, are asking Federal District Judge William M. Taylor Jr. to dismiss criminal charges against them, saying that they had been "selectively" investigated for political reasons.

Mr. Carr and the other defendants have asked for White House tape recordings of a meeting in July, 1971, between Preesident Nixon, former Attorney General John N. Mitchell and Senator John G. Tower, Texas Republicans.

Mitchell Subpoenaed

Judge Taylor did not rule on the request for the tapes today.
Government lawyers said that the defendants had not proved that the tape recordings were relevant or that they even existed.

Other witnesses that the defendants have subpoenaed to placed listening devices inside paid electronic experts who placed listening devices inside

Mr. Kleindienst, who was

Made $120,000 Profit

Mr. Smith and Dr. that some of his dealings with made a profit together of about Texas politicians "smacked" of $120,000 in an insurance com-and was placed on probation.

Mr. Kleindienst said he found isted.

Other witnesses that the defendants have subpoenaed to testify at the hearings are Mr. Mitchell and L. Patrick Gray 3d, former director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
In 1970, when the investigation into Sharp's tangled financial empire of banks, insurance companies and housing projects began. Mr. Mitchell was Attorney General and Mr. Court judge.