

Watergate TV Cut

Gavel-to-gavel coverage of the Watergate hearings on television here will be confined today to the regular 3 p.m. taped broadcast on KQED-TV, Channel 9.

KRON-TV, Channel 4, KGO-TV, Channel 7, and KPIX-TV, Channel 5, which had been carrying the network airings live on a rotating pool basis, said their Watergate coverage will be restricted to news shows.

Daytime programs, the stations said, will be interrupted if hearing news of significance occurs.
