OCT 1 1 1973 Thronology on the Agnew Resignation

Special to The New Zork Times

Aug. 2—Mr. Agnew received a letter from the prosecutor informing him of the investigation and asking for documents. Mr. Agnew informed the President of the letter.

Aug. 6—Mr. Agnew met with appeared in the press, and said he would not resign.

Would Open Records

Aug. 14—Mr. Agnew announced he would open his records to the United States Attorney and answer questions.

Aug. 18—Mr. Agnew complained of "leaks" to the press.

Richardson announced an in-

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10—
Following is a chronology of events leading to Vice President Agnew's resignation:

February, 1973—Mr. Agnew, through what he later called "rumors in the cocktail circuit," first became aware of an investigation into certain Sept. 14—News reports said an investigation into certain Sept. 14—News reports said of his affairs by a Federal grand jury in Baltimore.

Early April—Mr. Agnew retained counsel and inmormed Sept. 18—News reports said President Nixon of the inmormed Sept. 18—News reports said President Nixon of the inmormed Sept. 18—News reports said President Nixon of the inmormed Sept. 18—News reports said President.

vestigation.

resigning.

2—Mr. Agnew received Sept. 19—Mr. Agnew denied he was considering resigning. Sept. 21—Mr. Agnew met with Mr. Nixon for more than an Oc hour.

Plea Bargaining Reported

the President of the letter.

Aug. 6—Mr. Agnew met with Attorney General Elliot L. Richardson and informed the press of investigation.

Aug. 7—Mr. Agnew met with the President.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew, in a news conference, denounced charges against him that had appeared in the press, and the president.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew met with the press.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew, in a news conference, denounced charges against him that had appeared in the press, and the president.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew met with the president.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew, in a news conference, denounced charges against him that had appeared in the press, and self-president.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew met with the press.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew, in a news conference, denounced charges against him that had appeared in the press, and the Justice Department was reported in the press.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew met with the press.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew, in a news conference, denounced charges against him that had appeared in the press, and the Justice Department was reported in the press.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew met with the press.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew, in a news conference, denounced charges against him that had appeared in the press, and the Justice Department was reported in the press.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew met with the press.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew, in a news conference, denounced charges against him that had appeared in the press, and and the Justice Department was reported in the press.

Aug. 8—Mr. Agnew met with the press.

House said Mr. Nixon did not ask for Mr. Agnew's resignation. In a letter to House Speaker Carl Albert, Mr. Agnew called for an investigation of the charges against him by the House of Representation. sentatives. Mr. Richardson announced the failure of to halt the grand jury investigation on the ground that the Constitution prohibits criminal proceedings against a sitting Vice President dent.

Accuses Petersen

Sept. 29—Mr. Agnew said in a speech in Los Angeles that he was innocent of the charges against him and vowed that he would not resign even if indicted. He accused Assistant Attorney General Henry E. Petersen and the Justice Department in general of leaks to the in general of leaks to the press.

ct. 1—Attorney General Richardson denied that Mr. Petersen was the source of leaks.
ct. 3—Federal District Judge Walter E. Hoffman granted Mr. Agnew's attorneys authority to conduct an investigation of Justice Department leaks, including power of subpoena. The President supported Mr. Agnew's refusal to resign if indicted.
ct. 5—The Justice Department, in a 5,000-word memorandum, argued that a sitment, in a 5,000-word memorandum, argued that a sitting Vice President could be indicted, but offered to give the House of Representatives a chance to impeach him first. The memorandum also round that the statute of limit said that the statute of limitations on some of the mat-Aug. 18—Mr. Agnew complained of "leaks" to the press.

Aug. 21—Mr. Agnew, in a news Sept. 26—Mr. Albert announced conference, denounced Justice Department leaks.

Aug. 22—The President supported Mr. Agnew without Sept. 27—The Federal grand commenting on specific charges and called for an end to leaks to the press.

Aug. 23 — Attorney General Sept. 28—Mr. Agnew filed suit said that the statute of limitations on some of the matters under investigation would expire this Oct. 26. Mr. Agnew's lawyers served subpoenas on reporters and news organizations.

Oct. 8—Reporters asked for a delay in responding to the subpoenas. Judge Hoffman rejected the request.