

UPI Telephoto

'I'll Do My Utmost'

Representative Gerald Ford of Michigan addressed the dignitaries in the White House East Room after his vice presidential nomination by President Nixon (at right at podium). Ford told the group—and a national television audience — "I will do my utmost to the best of my ability to serve this country well." Ford had received a standing ovation from the East Room group upon his nomination.