

Black Saturday: A Profound constitutional Crisis

An Analysis By L. G. Miller II
Knight News Service

WASHINGTON — President Nixon's stunning wave of firings led to his government's suffering the usual's capital in a dramatic way.

Not only was the firing of prominent officials a major violation of the law, but it was also a major violation of the president's duty to the people.

The firings were a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

President Nixon's firing of the special prosecutor, the attorney general, and the deputy attorney general is a clear violation of the law.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

Presidential appointee to the Attorney Generalship of Justice.

Now, about six months later, that special prosecutor has been tipped not in a businesslike kind of way.

There was a period of a month or so when Nixon's firing of the special prosecutor was a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.

The firings are a direct result of the president's desire to control the news and the media.