

OCT 23 1973

Burglars Take

Legal Data

Washington SFChronicle

Attorney Edward Bennett Williams says burglars who broke into his suburban home Sunday emptied his briefcase and the desk in which he keeps legal files to work at home. 21 OCT

One of the nation's best known trial lawyers, Williams has been handling lawsuits stemming from the Watergate break-in and also represents Robert Vesco, the international financier indicted along with John N. Mitchell, the former attorney general, and Maurice Stans, former secretary of commerce, in a case involving campaign contributions for President Nixon.

Associated Press