

Nixon's Day

UPI Telephoto

President Nixon walked alone up the steps of the Executive Office Building next door to the White House yesterday. The President, who is reported to be considering a new Watergate TV speech, worked in his office before going to Camp David.