

Amin Likes WayNixon Hangs In

Kampala, Uganda

President Idi Amin sent a telegram to President Nixon yesterday congratulating him on not resigning. He said a weaker man might have committed suicide.

"I wish to congratulate you and compliment you most sincerely for this courageous stand," Amin said.

"I am sure any other weak leader would have resigned or committed suicide after being subjected to so much harassment because of the Watergate affair."

United Press