

NYTimes NOV 9 1973
REBOZO SUES PAPER,
ASKING $10-MILLION

MIAMI, Nov. 8 (UPI)—Charles G. Rebozo has filed a $10-million suit against The Washington Post Company, charging that the newspaper libeled him in an article about a stock transaction.

Mr. Rebozo, a confidant of President Nixon, said in a suit filed in Federal Court here yesterday that The Post had libeled him Oct. 25 when it ran a front-page article alleging that he had cashed $91,500 in stolen stocks in 1968 after being told the stocks had been stolen.

The second paragraph of the article carried a denial of the charges by a lawyer speaking for Mr. Rebozo.

The article was based on an insurance investigator's sworn statements, on file with a Miami court.

The investigator, George H. Riley Jr., said he had told Mr. Rebozo in 1968 that 900 shares of International Business Machines stock accepted as collateral for a loan by Mr. Rebozo's Key Biscayne bank had been stolen. The Post said the stocks were later sold.

Mr. Rebozo charged that Mr. Riley's statements were patently false."

United States District Judge James Lawrence King ruled in favor of the bank in the case in 1970 and reaffirmed the ruling last week.

Howard Simons, managing editor of The Washington Post, said that neither he nor the newspaper's attorney had received a copy of the suit and refused comment until that time.