

NOV 11 1973

White House rally backs president

United Press

WASHINGTON — Nearly 75 persons, braving a 39-degree chill and occasional jeers from passing motorists and pedestrians, held a "support Nixon" rally yesterday on the sidewalk in front of the White House.

The predominantly youthful demonstrators waved flags, carried signs and chanted as they marched in a circle alongside Pennsylvania Avenue, just beyond the White House fence. President Nixon was at his Camp David, Md., retreat for the weekend.
