

NYTimes NOV 16 1973

Nixon to Attend Parley
Of Managing Editors

ORLANDO, Fla., Nov. 14 (AP)—President Nixon plans to attend the Associated Press Managing Editors convention here Saturday, convention officials announced Wednesday night.

John Quinn, president of the group and vice president-news of the Gannett Company, Inc., said he had been advised by the White House that the President would accept an invitation from the convention to present his views on all issues facing the nation.