

The Nixon's Holiday Dinner

Washington

President and Mrs. Nixon will celebrate Thanksgiving Day with a traditional turkey dinner at Camp David.

The Nixons' daughter and son-in-law, Tricia and Edward Cox, who live in New York, will join the family gathering. But their other daughter and son-in-law, Julie and David Eisenhower, will spend the holiday with David's parents, former Ambassador and Mrs. John Eisenhower, at Phoenixville, Pa.

The Thanksgiving menu, prepared by the naval kitchen staff at Camp David, includes roast turkey, bread dressing, mashed potatoes with giblet gravy, buttered green peas, minted pears, spiced apple rings, cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie.

United Press