

Chapin to Enter Plea of Not Guilty on Lying

Washington

Former presidential appointments secretary Dwight L. Chapin will plead not guilty to charges of lying to a grand jury at his arraignment before U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell this morning according to papers filed by Chapin's attorneys yesterday.

Washington Post