Watergate Rhymes

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, Dec. 8 (UPI) — Christmas cards that Justice Minister J. Martyn Finlay sends feature political rhymes for the times, aimed at the Watergate woes of President Nixon.

The Wellington Dominion newspaper printed the minister's verse, including this one entitled "(C)rimes for a Contemporary Nursery":

Watergate, Watergate,
Nixon's man, Cook me a tape as fast as you can.
Cut it and splice it and scrub it so pure,
The President's sweet-talk will sound quite demure.
