SFChronicle 12 DEZ 73 Saxbe Hearings

Washington

and the second second week.

The Senate Judiciary Committee decided yesterday to hold one day of hearings on the nomination of Senator William B. Saxbe, (Rep-Ohio) to be attorney general with the chairman predicting that confirmation could come by the end of the

"I think the committee might report him out tomorrow," committee chairman James O. Easfland (Dem-Miss.) told reporters after the committee agreed to question Saxbe today.

United Press

and the second second