CORRECTIONS

In a dispatch in The New York Times Monday, it was stated erroneously that Walter Kilham, a New York architect, had said he once made a $25,000 contribution to the Republican party. The amount of the contribution was $25.

An article last Saturday incorrectly reported that Vincent L. Broderick had been forced to resign as Police Commissioner early in the Lindsay administration. Mr. Broderick was appointed by Mayor Robert F. Wagner on June 7, 1965, to fill out the unexpired term of Commissioner Michael J. Murphy and served to the end of this term, Feb. 21, 1966.
