

WXPost DEC 13 1973

Nixon Tells Visitor He Won't Resign

United Press International

"That will never happen," President Nixon said yesterday when a long-time Republican politician asked if he planned to resign.

The President's statement was relayed to reporters by former State Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, 97, of Harrisburg, Pa., who called on Mr. Nixon in the Oval Office to express support.

Taylor, a former Pennsylvania state Republican chairman, told newsmen that Mr. Nixon was "the most abused man in the United States."

"I told him no one is perfect," Taylor recounted. "The only perfect man was Jesus Christ."

Taylor likened the President's plight to that of an adultress who was stoned by a mob until Christ waved his hand and said "Let he who is without sin cast the first stone."

He said he had told Mr. Nixon "he was the hardest working President we've had in 80 years."

The White House said Taylor comes to Washington about this time every year and is invited to meet with Mr. Nixon.