

Nixon Delays Physical

Washington

President Nixon postponed plans to undergo a thorough physical examination this morning so he could meet with his two top energy policy advisers.

Deputy press secretary Gerald L. Warren gave no indication that the energy meeting had any urgency and said Mr. Nixon would take his physical some day next week.

United Press