

Rep. Mills Repays Gulf's Contribution

Washington

Representative Wilbur D. Mills (Dem Ark.) has paid back from personal funds $15,000 that Gulf Oil Corp. illegally contributed to his unsuccessful 1972 presidential campaign, an aide said yesterday.

Mills wrote a personal check for the amount Thursday because his campaign organization is defunct, the aide said.

Gulf pleaded guilty November 13 to contributing from corporate funds $15,000 to Mills' campaign and also admitted donating an illegal $100,000 to President Nixon's campaign.
