In his deposition, Mehren denied personal knowledge of political arm to contribute funds in connection with a quoted March, 1971, amendment of milk price supports favorable to the milk industry. He also denied any knowledge of AMPI funds being committed to Mr. Nixon's 1972 campaign. He said he was given a flat denial in early 1972 from an AMPI employee, David Parr, that Parr had committed $2.6 million to Nixon aide Charles Colson.

> It has been previously disclosed that a letter by attor-ney Patrick J. Hillings promised in 1971 that as much as $2 million would eventually be given to the Nixon campaign by the dairymen.

Mehren said in his deposi-tion that he met Feb. 3, 1972, in Los Angeles with President Nixon's personal lawyer, Her-bert Kalmbach, and members of Kalmbach's law firm about the possibility of 1972 contrib-utions, which never materialized.

AMPI contributed $202,000 to Mr. Nixon in 1971.
