

Nixon Postpones Physical

Washington

President Nixon has postponed his annual medical checkup indefinitely, White House aides indicated yesterday.

Mr. Nixon had been scheduled to undergo a head-to-toe physical examination at Bethesda Naval Medical Center Saturday morning, but he postponed it to meet with his energy advisers.

Press Secretary Ronald Ziegler said the examination had not been rescheduled and he does not know when Mr. Nixon plans to take it.

United Press