G.A.O. Sees Election Law Violations by Nixon Unit

Dec. (UPI)—An investigation by the Act, according to the G.A.O., The apparent violations indued by the Federal Elections General Accounting Office dissem from payments of $35,000 cluded failure to keep a de-Office, a branch of the G.A.O. cosed today three apparent by the Finance Committee to tailed account of expenditures The report said that Mr. legal violations in the handling Re-elect the President o Murray made by Mr. Chotiner and iden-Chotiner, head of the Ballot of funds to hire two reporters Chotiner, then President Nixo tifying Mr. Goldberg and Mr. Security Task Force of the comto spy on George McGovern's chief political strategist.

18 the Federal Election Campaign lated expenses for Mr. Chotiner.

Freidin as the ultimate reci-mittee hired Mr. Freidin and to spy on George McGovern's chief political strategist.

1972 Presidential campaign.

Controller General Elmer B. Seymour K. Freidin and Lucistants referred the results of the investigation to the Justice Department for "appropriate action."

The money was used to pay plents; failure to keep documentary support for payments made to the two journalists; and failure to report the identity of persons to whom payments the committee as reimbursenamely Mr. Goldberg and Mr. Chatiner's law practice action."

The apparent violations of ment of travel and other re-

The investigation was han-