

SFChronicle

JAN 7 1974

AP Wirephoto

Nixons at Church

President Nixon and his daughter Tricia waved to crowd following church services yesterday at the San Clemente Presbyterian church. The Nixon family heard a sermon on the need for heavenly guidance in facing problems and correcting mistakes. It was the first time that Mr. Nixon has attended religious services outside the White House since Easter.