

Out By Easter?

JAN 9 1974

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — A "fairly good chance" exists President Nixon will resign before Easter under pressure from the Watergate grand jury, the business community and the Republican party, according to Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz.

"There is a fairly good chance that before Easter, the president will want to do a last service for his country, to step aside and let Gerald Ford take over," Udall told the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association yesterday.
