

Nixon's Health

San Diego

President Nixon has aged under the criticisms of Watergate but will never resign, a White House assistant said yesterday.

"The President's health—physically, emotionally and psychologically—is first rate, but he has aged and this Watergate is a heavy burden," John McLaughlin said in an interview.

McLaughlin, deputy special assistant to Mr. Nixon, said the media and political partisans are behind the assault.

Associated Press