

Viet Cong May Hold 3 Missing In Vietnam

Saigon

Three members of the American Friends Service Committee are missing and presumed held by the Viet Cong, a committee spokesman said today.

The three were identified as Paul Quinn-Judge, 23, a British national, his wife, Sophie, 23, an American from Philadelphia, and Diane Jones, 28, of New York City.

The committee headquarters in Philadelphia said the three were detained last Wednesday near the My Lai Rehabilitation Center, not far from Quang Ngai.
