

Associated Press

AMNESTY TALKS—Vice President Ford, right, chats with Rep. Paul N. McCloskey Jr. (R-Calif.) in the House barber shop. Earlier, McCloskey made a speech on the floor of the House stating Congress should grant President Nixon full and unconditional amnesty from prosecution if he resigns from office.