And in Watergate, the seemingly omnipresent CIA appears once again. Today Republican Senator Howard Baker, vice-chairman of the Watergate committee, said the CIA informed him it destroyed all material in its possession about the White House plumbers squadx On January 18th, 1973.

According to Time Magazine, that would put the destruction of the material one day after the CIA had received a letter from Senate majority leader, Mike Mansfield, specifically requesting that all Watergate-related material be safeguarded.
