

A Watergate Jury Hears Ziegler Again

Washington

Ronald Ziegler, one of President Nixon's closest aides, was recalled by a Watergate grand jury this week for additional questioning, a White House spokesman said yesterday.

Ziegler, who holds the dual titles of press secretary and assistant to the President, is not a target of the jury's investigation, said deputy press secretary Gerald Warren in confirming that Ziegler had gone back before the panel.

Associated Press
