

Mitchell

Jurors

New York

Fourteen more potential jurors were qualified yesterday to try former Attorney General John N. Mitchell and onetime Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans on charges of peddling their influence in return for a secret $200,000 contribution to President Nixon's re-election campaign.

As the trial was recessed for the night, the total number of potential jurors stood at 38, just short of the three-quarter mark of the number required.

Associated Press