Liddy Is Disbarred From High Court

Convicted Watergate conspirator G. Gordon Liddy was disbarred yesterday from practice before the Supreme Court. He previously had been disbarred in the courts of New York, his home state.

The action came in a routine court order noting that Liddy had been suspended from the Supreme Court bar Nov. 19 and ordered to show cause why he should not be permanently disbarred. Liddy did not respond to that order.
