

United Press International

United Press International

A WATCHFUL EYE—Daniel Ellsberg, in Lansing, Mich., for a speaking engagement, looks over a reporter's list of presidential aides who were indicted yesterday. "I never thought I'd see the day when men like Haldeman and Ehrlichman would be indicted," he said, "but I'm pleased and think its good . . ."