1973:)
Mr. Dash. Was there a meeting in your apartment on the evening that you arrived in Washington on June 19, attended by Mr. LaRue, Mr. Mardian, Mr. Dean, Mr. Magruder —

Mr. Mitchell. Magruder and myself, that is correct.

Mr. Dash. Do you recall the purpose of that meeting, the discussion that took place there?

Mr. Mitchell. I recall that we had been traveling all day and, of course, we had very little information about what the current status was of the entry of the Democratic National Committee, and we met at the apartment to discuss it. They were, of course, clamoring for a response from the committee because of Mr. McCord's involvement, etc., etc., and we had quite a general discussion of the subject a general discussion of the subject

Mr. Dash. Do you recall any discussion of the so-called either Gemstone files or wire-tapping files that you had in your possession?

Mr. Mitchell: No, I had not heard of the Gemstone files as of that meeting and, as of that date, I had not heard that anyone there at that particular meeting knew of the wirteapping aspects of that or had any connection with it with it.

July 11, 1973:

Sen. Weicker. Now, on June 19, Mr. Magruder has testified and Mr. LaRue has stated that Mr. Mitchell, that you instructed Magruder to destroy the Gemstone files, to in fact, have a bonfire with them.

Sen. Weicker. Did you suggest that any documents be destroyed, not necessarily Gemstone.

Mr. Mitchell. To the best of my recollection.

Sen. Weicker. At the June 19 meeting at your apartment?

Did you suggest that any documents be destroyed, not necessarily Gemstone or not necessarily docu-ments that relate to electronic surveillance?

Mr. Mitchell. To the best of my recollection when I was there ther was no such discussion of the destruction o fany documents. That was not the type of a meeting we were having. The (italicized) portions of the declarations quoted . . ., made by John N. Mitchell, the defendant, were . . .

Harry R. Haldeman, the Defendant, appearing as a witness under oath before the (Senate Watergate Committee, did willfully and knowingly state ... as follows:

I was told several times, starting in the summer of 1972, by John Dean and possibly also by John Mitchell that there was a need by the committee for funds to help take care of the legal fees and family support of the Watergate defendants. The committee apparently fgelt obliged to do this to do this.

Since all information regarding the defense funds was given to me by John Dean, the counsel to the President, and possibly by John Mitchell, and since the arrangements for Kalmbach's collecting funds and for transferring the $350,000 cash fund were made by John Dean, and since John Dean never stated at the time that the funds would be used for any other than legal legal [sic] and proper purposes, I had no reason to question the propriety or legality of the process of delivering the $350,000 to the committee via LaRue or of having Kalmbach raisonals.

I have no personal knowledge of what was done with the funds raised by Kalmbach or with the $350,000 that was delivered by Strachan to LaRue.

It ould appear that, at the White House at least, John Dean was the only one who knew that the funds were for "hush money". if, in fact, that is what they were for. The rest of us relied on Dean and all thought that what was being done was legal and proper. No one, to my knowledge, was aware that these funds involved either blackmail or 'hush money" until this suggestion was raised in March. this suggestion was raised in March of 1973.

The (italicized) portion of the statements... made by Harry R. Haldeman, the defendant, was material to the said investigation and study and as he then and there well knew, was false.

Harry R. Haldeman, the defendant, Harry R. Haldeman, the defendant, appearing as a witness under oath before the (Senate Watergate) committee, did willfully and knowingly state as follows on July 30, 1973):

I was present for the final 40 minutes of the President's meeting with John Dean on the morning of March

He [Dean] also reported on a current Hunt blackmail threat. He said Hunt was demanding $120,000 or else Hunt was demanding $120.000 or else he would tell about the seamy things he had done for Ehrlichman. The President pursued this in considerable detail, obviously trying to smoke out what was really going on. He led Dean on regarding the process and what he would recommend doing. He asked such things as "Well, this is the thing you would recommend? We ought to do this? Is that right?" And he asked where the money would come from? How it would be delivered? And so on. He asked how much money would He asked how much money would be involved over the years and Dean said "probably a million dollars—but the problem is that it is hard to raise." The President said "there is no problem in raising a million dollars. we can do that, but it would be wrong."

July 31, 1973:

Sen. Baker . . . What I want to point out to you is that one statement in your addendum seems to me to be of extraordinary importance and I want to test the accuracy of your recollection and the quality of your notetaking from those tapes, and I am referring to the last, next to the last, no, the third from the last sentence on page 2, "The President said there is no 2, "The President said there is no problem in raising a million dollars. We can do that but it would Now, if the period were to follow after "We can do that", it would be a most damning statement. If, in fact, the tapes clearly show he said "but it would be wrong," it is an but it would be wrong," it is an entirely different context. Now, how sure are you, Mr. Haldeman, that those tapes, in fact say that?

Mr. Haldeman, I am absolutely positive that the trace.

Mr. Haldeman. No, I do not believe so.

Sen. Ervin. Then the tape said that the President said that there was no problem raising a million dollars.

Mr. Haldeman. Well, I should put that the way it really came, Mr. Chairman, which was that Dean said when the President said how much money are you talking about here and Dean said over a period of years probably a million dallars but and Dean said over a period of years probably a million dollars, but it would be very hard—it is very hard to raise that money. And the President said it is not hard to raise it. We can raise a million dollars. And then got into the question of, in the one case before I came into the magning making a statement that the meeting making a statement that it would be wrong and in other exploration of this getting into the—trying to find out what Dean was talking about in terms of a million dollars.

Sen. Ervin. Can you point—are you familiar with the testimony Dean gave about his conversations on the 13th and the 21st of March with the President?

Mr. Haldeman. I am generally familiar with it, yes, sir.

Sen. Ervin. Well, this tape corroborates virtually everything he said except that he said that the President could be—that the President said there would be no difficulty about riging the more difficulty about riging the more difficulty about riging to be more difficulty. culty about raising the money and you say the only difference in the tape is that the Prtsident also added that but that would be wrong.

Mr. Haldeman. And there was considerable other discussion about what you do, what Dean would recommend, what should be done, how—what this process is and this sort of thing. It was a very there were the work of the control of the thing. It was a very—there was considerable exploration in the area.

On or about July 21, 1973, in the District of Columbia, John D. COUNT ELEVEN

John D. Ehrlichman, the defendant, appearing as a witness under oath at a proceeding before the . . . grand jury, did knowingly declare . . . as follows (on May 3, 1973):

Q. Mr. Ehrlichman, going back to that first week following the Watergate arrest, did you have any conversations besides those on Monday with Mr. Dean?

A. Yes, I did.
Q. Will you relate those to the ladies and gentlemen of the grand

A. Well, I don't recall the content specifically of most of them. I know that I saw Mr. Dean because my log shows that he was in my office. I think it was four times that week, once in a large meeting—excuse me, more than four times.

He was in alone twice on Monday, and in the large meeting that I have described. He was in twice alone on other occasions, and then he was in a meeting that I had with Pat Gray -well, that was the following week. It was a span of seven days, within the span of seven days.

Q. All right. Now at any of those meetings with Mr. Dean, was the subject matter brought up of a person by the name of Gordon Liddy?

A. I can't say specifically one way or the other.

Q. So you can neither confirm nor deny that anything with respect to Mr. Liddy was brought up at any of those meetings, is that correct, sir?

- A. I don't recall whether Mr. Liddy was being mentioned in the press and would have been the subject of an inquiry by somebody from the outside. If he would have, then it is entirely probable that his name came up.
- Q. All right. Let's assume for a moment that Mr. Liddy's name did not in that first week arise in the press. Can you think of any other context in which his name came up, excluding any possible press problem with respect to the name of Liddy? Liddy?

A. I have no present recollection of that having happened.

- Q. So you can neither confirm nor deny whether or not the name of Gordon Liddy came up in the course of any conversation you had with Mr. Dean during that week, or for that matter with anyone else?
- A. That's right, unless I had some specific event to focus on. Just to take those meetings in the abstract.

I can't say that I have any recollection of that having happened in any of those.

Q. All right. Let's take the example of did anyone advise you, directly or indirectly, that Mr. Liddy was implicated or involved in the Watergate affair?

A. Well, they did at some time, and I don't know whether it was during that week or not.

Q. To the best of your recollection, when was that done, sir?

A. I'm sorry but I just don't remem-

Q. Well, who was it that advised you of that?

A. I think it was Mr. Dean, but I don't remember when he did it.
Q. Would it have been within a month of the investigation? Within three months of the investigation?

A. I'm sorry but I just don't know. Q. You can't even say then whether it was within a-week, a month, or three months? Is that correct, sir?

A. Well, I think it was fairly early on, but to say it was within a week or two weeks or something, I just. don't know.

Q. Now Mr. Dean advised you that Mr. Liddy was implicated. Did you advise the United States attorney or the Attorney General, or any other law enforcement agency immediately or at any time after?

A. No. I don't think it was private information at the time I heard it.

Q. Well, did you inquire to find out whether or not it was private information?

A. To the best of my recollection when I first heard it it was not in the nature of exclusively known to Dean, or anything of that kind.

Q. Well, was it in the newspapers

Q. Well, was it in the newspapers that he was involved?

A. I'm sorry. I just don't rememmember. It probably was, but I just can't recall.

Q. You mean the first time you found out from Mr. Dean that Liddy was involved. Mr. Ebeliahman it was was involved, Mr. Ehrlichman, it was in the same newspaper or the newspapers that you yourself could have read?

A. No, no. I am telling you that I cannot remember the relationship of time, but my impression is that he was not giving me special information that was not available to other people.

A lot of Mr. Dean's information came out of the Justice Department apparently, and so I think the impression I had was whatever he was giving us by way of information was known to a number of other people. That's what I meant by special information.

(May 9, 1973):
Q. When did you first become aware that Mr. Liddy was involved?

A. I don't know. Q. You don't know?

A. No, sir. Q. Did you ever become aware of it?

A. Well, obviously I did, but I don't know when that was.
Q. Was it in June?

A. I say I don't know.
Q. Who told you?
A. I don't know.

Q. How did you learn it? A. I don't recall.

The (italicized) portions of the declarations . . made by John D. Ehrlichman, the defendant, were . . . as he then and there well knew, were false . .

COUNT TWELVE

John D. Ehrlichman, the defendant, appearing as a witness under oath at a proceeding before the . . . grand jury, did knowingly declare . . . as follows

(on May 3, 1973):
Q. Now with respect to that, what further information did you receive that really related to this fund raising for the defendants and the defense counsel and their families? A. I had a call from Mr. Kalmbach within four or five days to verify whether or not I had in fact talked to John Dean. I said that I

Q. This was a telephone call, sir? A. I think it was. It may have been during a visit. I'm not sure. I used to see Mr. Kalmbach periodically about all kinds of things.

It may have been during a visit, but I think it was just a phone call.

He said substantially that John Dean had called me and said that I had no objection, and I said, "Herb, if you don't have any objection to doing it, I don't have any objection to your doing it, obviously."

He said, "No, I don't mind," and he went ahead.

Q. So far as you recall the only conversation that you recall is Mr. Kalmbach saying to you, "John Dean has asked me to do this," and you stated that you had no objection. He said that he was checking with you to determine whether you had any objection or not?

A. He was checking on Dean. Q. On Dean? A. Yes.

Q. And you said to him, "If you don't have any objection then I don't have any objection"?

A. Kight.

Q. Was there any discussion between the two of you as to the purpose for which this money was to be raised?

A. I don't have any recollection of his doing so.

Q. Did you in any way approve the purpose for which this money was being given?

A. No, I don't think so. I don't recall doing so.

Q. Based on your testimony for the background of this, there would have been no basis for your approval or for you to affirm that?

A. That's right. That's why I say that I don't believe that I did.

Q. And your best recollection is that you did not?

A. That's right.

Q. Do you have any recollection of Mr. Kalmbach inquiring of you whether or not this was appropriate, sir?

A. Questioning me with respect to that?

Q. Yes.
A. No, I don't recall ever saying that ... Q. He did not, to the best of your recollection?

(May 9, 1973): Q. You had never expressed, say back six or seven months ago, to Mr. Kalmbach that the raising of the money should be kept as a secret matter, and it would be rither political dynamits. tical dynamite, or comparable words, if it ever got out, when Mr. Kalmbach came to see you?

A. No, I don't recall ever saying

COUNT THIRTEEN

Gordon Strachan, the defendant, appearing as a witness under oath at a proceeding before the . . . grand jury, did knowingly declare . . . as follows:

Q. Did you, yourself, ever receive any money from the Committee for the Re-election of the President, or from the Finance Committee to Re-elect the President?

A. Yes, sir, I did.
Q. Can you tell the ladies and gentlemen of the grand jury about that?
A. Yes, sir. On April 6, 1972, I received $350,000 in cash.

- Q. From whom?
- A. From Hugh Sloan.
- Q. What was done with the money after you received it from Mr. Sloan on April 6th?

 - A. I put it in the safe.
 Q. Was the money ever used?
 - A. Pardon?
 - Q. Was the money ever used?
- A. No, the money was not used. Q. To your knowledge, was it ever
- taken out of the safe?
- A. No.
- Q. To your knowledge, is it still there?
- A. No, it is not.
- Q. Where is it?
 A. I returned it to the committee, at Haldeman's direction, at the end of November.

 - Q. November of '72?
 A. Yes, '72, or early December.
 Q. To whom did you return it?

 - A. To Fred LaRue.
- Q. Where did that transfer take place?
- A. I gave it to Mr. LaRue in his apartment.
- Q. That was either late November or early December?
- A. That's correct.
 Q. Well, let me ask you this: Why would it have been given to Mr. La-Rue at his apartment as opposed to being given to the committee?

 A. Well, Mr. LaRue is a member of the committee and he just asked me to bring it by on my way home from work.

- om work. Q. After Mr. Haldeman told you to return the money, what did you do? Did you contact someone to arrange for the delivery?
 - A. Yes, I contacted Mr. LaRue.
- Q. That was at Mr. Haldeman's suggestion or direction?
- A. No.
 Q. Why is it that you would have called Mr. LaRue?
 A. I don't think Stans was in the - country at that time. He was not
- Q. What position did Mr. LaRue occupy that would have made you
- A. He was the senior campaign official.
- Q. That's the only reason you called him?
- A. That's correct.
- Q. No one suggested you call him?
- Q. Was anyone present in Mr. La-Rue's apartment at the hotel when you delivered the money to him?
- A. No.
 Q. Did you ever tell anyone to whom you had given the money? Did you report back to eith Mr. Haldeman or anyone else that you had delivered the money and to whom you had delivered the money?

 A. I don't think so. I could have mentioned that I had Jone it when mentioned that I had done it. When I received an order, I did it.

Q. Did you get a receipt for the - money?

 - A. No, I did not.

 - Q. Did you ask for it? A. No, I did not. A juror: Why?

The witness: I did not give a receipt when I received the money, so I didn't ask for one when I gave it back.

A juror: Did someone count the money when it came in and when it went out, so they knew there were no deductions made from that $350,-

The witness: Yes, I counted the money when I received it, and I counted it when I gave it back.

A juror: You solely counted it; no one else was with you?

The witness: I counted it when I received it alone, and I counted it in front of Mr. LaRue when I gave it back.

A juror: You had that money in the White House for seven months and did nothing with it?

The witness: That's correct.

- Q. So who told you to give it to Mr. LaRue?
- A. I decided to give it to Mr. La-Rue.
 - Q. On your own ititiative?

 - A. That's, correct.
 Q. Who do you report to?
 A. Mr. Haldeman.
- Q. Did you report back to Mr. Haldeman that you gave it to Mr. LaRue?
 - A. No, I did not.
- Q. You just kept this all to yourself?
- A. He was a senior official at the campaign. I gave it back to him. He said he would account for it, and that was it.
- Q. Who told you to go to Mr. La-Rue and give him the money? A. I decided that myself. Q. Do you have a memo in your file relating to this incident?

- A. No, I do not.
 Q. Did you discuss this incident with anybody afterwards?
 A. Yes, I told Mr. Haldeman afterwards that I had given the money to Mr. LaRue.
- Q. What did he say to you? A. Fine. He was a senior campaign official.
- Q. What time of day was it that
- you gave it to Mr. LaRue?

 A. In the evening, after work.
 Q. Does the finance committee or
- the Committee to Re-elect the President conduct its business in Mr. La-
- Rue's apartment?

 A. No. It was a matter of courtesy.
 He's a senior official. He asked me to drop it by after work.

The foreman: Do you have any idea why Mr. LaRue asked you to return this money to his apartment, where actually you could just walk across 17th Street?

The witness: No, I do not.

The foreman: And you could have had the protection of the Secret Service guards with all that money, if you were afraid someone might snatch it from you.

The witness: I wouldn't ask for the Secret Service guards protection.
A juror: Why not?
The witness: They protect only the President and his family.

The foreman: Or the White House guards, whoever, I mean, I find it somewhat dangerous for a person to be carrying this amount of money in Washington, in the evening, and your accompanied by your better. you accompanied by your brother, when it would have been much easier and handier just to walk across 17th Street.

The witness: I agree, and I was previous doing it but I is a like the street.

The witness: I agree, and I was nervous doing it, but I did it.

The foreman: I'm still puzzled. You get the money from the treasurer or whatever Mr. Sloan's position was in the committee — shall be a commi tion was in the committee — shall we say on an official basis, between the disburser and you as the receiver, and the money sits in the safe for seven months; then Mr. Haldeman decides it has to go back to the committee. You call Mr. LaRue — you don't call Mr. Sloan and say "Hugh, seven months ago you gave me this $350,000 and we haven't used any of it; I'd like to give it back to you since I got it from you", but you call Mr. LaRue. The witness: Mr. Sloan was no longer with the committee at that time.

The foreman: Well, whoever took Mr. Sloan's place.

The witness: Mr. Barrett took Mr. Sloan's place.

The foreman: Why didn't you call him?

- The witness: I honestly don't know.
 Q. When you got to Mr. LaRue's apartment was he expecting you?
 A. Yes. I said I would be by.
- Q. And no one was present when

Q. And no one was present wnen you were there?
A. No, sir.
Q. Was the money counted?
A. Yes, sir, I counted it.
A juror: It must have taken a long time to count that money.
The witness: It did. It took about 45 minutes. It takes a long time to count it.

- count it.

 Q. How did you carry this money?
 A. In a briefcase.
 Q. Did you take the briefcase back, or did you leave it?
 A. No, I left the briefcase.
 Q. Whose briefcase was it?
 A. Gee, I think it was mine. I'm houestly not sure.
- Q. Did you ever get the briefcase
 - A. I don't think so.
- Q. Have you spoken to Mr. LaRue since that day?
- A. No well, I ran into him at a party two weeks ago.
 - Q. Did you have a discussion?

A. No, just talked to him.

Following is the text of the ruling yesterday by U.S. District Chief Judge J. Sirica enjoining "parties of witnesses" in the Watergate indictments from making extrajudicial statements:

Pursuant to the provisions of Rule 1-27, Rules of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia . . . it is by the Court this 1st day of March, 1974,

ORDERED that all parties or witnesses in this case, specifically:

- (1) the Office of the Watergate Special Prosecutor and all persons acting for or with that office in behalf of the United States,
- (2) the defendants named herein, their attorneys, and all persons acting for or with them, and
- (3) all persons identified as witnesses in this case, from and after the time such witness receives a subpoena to appear and testify and is given notice of this order, are hereby enjoined until further order of the court from making extrajudicial statements concerning any aspect of this case that is likely to interfere with the rights of the accused or the public to a fair trial by an impartial jury; and it is FURTHER ORDERED that for the purposes of this order, the term "ex-trajudicial statement" shall include any statement which is not made during the course of judicial proceedings in this case, provided that nothing in this order shall preclude the parties and their attorneys or agents from conducting appropriate interviews with potential witnesses or conferring among themselves in preparation for trial, and further provided that the provisions of Rule 1-27 (c) (6) shall apply to any definition of "extrajudicial statement."
