2 Nixon Ex-Aides Get Double Arraignment

Former top presidential has been assigned to U.S. Disaides John Ehrlichman and trict Judge Gerhard Gesell.

an array of Watergate-related Ehrlichman in the break-in Chief Judge John J. Sirica.

recent indictments returned noted that Ehrlichman is now against them in connection a resident of Seattle. with both the alleged Watergate cover-up and the break-in dicted in the "plumbers" case of the office of Daniel Ells- involving the Ellsberg breakberg's psychiatrist.

aigned today in the original nez and Felipe De Diego-will aigned today in the original Watergate cover-up case are former White House and Nixon campaign aides H. R. (Bob) Haldeman, Robert C. Mardian, John N. Mitchell, Kenneth W. Parkinson, and Cordon Strachan

Charles W. Colson are ex- Gesell asked Sirica to acpected to plead not guilty to cept the pleas of Colson and charges against them this case as well mainly as a matmorning before U.S. District ter of convenience to the former presidential aides, accord-They will be arraigned on ing to court officials who

The other four persons in-in - G. Gordon Liddy, Ber-Also scheduled to be arr- nard Barker, Eugenio Marti-

Gordon Strachan. While the cover-up will be handled by Judge Sirica in this and future stages, the Ellsberg break-in indictment, are allowed to enter a plea.