"It was on March 21 . . . I was told then that funds had been raised for payment to the defendants. . . . But I was only told that the money had been used for attorneys' fees and family support, not that it had been paid to procure silence from the recipients."

President Nixon, Aug. 15, 1973

"For the first time, on March 21 [Mr. Dean] told me that payments had been made to the defendants for the purpose of keeping them quiet, not simply for their defense."

President Nixon, March 6, 1974
