'I Left My Yo-Yo in Nashville'

Houston

President Nixon had a quick quip last night for a questioner who wanted to know if the nation would be seeing more relaxed presidential performances like the one last weekend at the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville.

"I left my yo-yo in Nashville," the President replied with a smile, turning immediately to the next question.

During his appearance in Nashville, President Nixon tried, unsuccessfully, to work a yo-yo under the guidance of country music star Roy Acuff.
