

Nixon Radio

Address

Today

Washington

President Nixon flew to his Camp David mountain-top retreat yesterday and the White House announced he will make a live broadcast to the nation today on education legislation.

The broadcast will be made after the noontime radio newscasts and will be about 15 minutes long. Deputy Press Secretary Gerald L. Warren said.

The President flew by helicopter to Camp David, the first time he has gone by helicopter since the energy crisis began.

Associated Press