

Have to Wait

New York

The day after he called for President Nixon's resignation, Senator James Buckley, Republican-Conservative of New York, received notice from the White House that a 30-day delay would be imposed on requests for White House tours by Buckley constituents, Newsweek magazine reported yesterday.

Such requests have normally been handled within hours as a senatorial courtesy, the magazine said.

United Press

