

Associated Press

WITH A LONG REACH: Howard H. Baker Jr. of Tennessee, vice chairman of Senate Watergate committee, shaking hands with President Nixon at a signing ceremony yesterday in the White House. Mr. Nixon endorsed a request for Congress to approve acceleration of flood-control projects along the Mississippi River with a $100-million appropriation. The White House announced Mr. Nixon was invited to a dinner April 25 in Jackson, Miss.