

Nixons Fly to Key Biscayne

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla., March 29 (AP) — President and Mrs. Nixon arrived here this afternoon and flew by helicopter to their vacation home. This was the first time that White House helicopters had been brought since the onset of the energy crisis. Accompanying the Nixons for the weekend were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Eisenhower; the White House Chief of Staff, Gen. Alexander M. Haig Jr.; the press secretary, Ronald L. Ziegler and the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, Roy L. Ash.
