

NYTimes MAR 27 1974
Ehrlichman Trial Scheduled
To Begin April 15 on Coast

LOS ANGELES, March 26 (UPI)—The trial of John D. Ehrlichman, former White House adviser on domestic affairs, on perjury charges is scheduled to begin April 15. That would make Mr. Ehrlichman the first former high White House official to face a jury for the Ellsberg burglary.

Mr. Ehrlichman is the only one of the four original defendants who still faces trial in a California court.

He is charged with lying to a county grand jury when he testified that he did not know in advance that the White House "plumbers" planned to rifle the files of Daniel Ellsberg's former psychiatrist.

The trial date was set yesterday in a conference involving the prosecutor, Stephen Trott; a defense attorney, Douglas Dalton, and Superior Court Judge Gordon Ringer.