SFChronicle Ford's Son Thinks Dad Will Retire in '76

Logan, Utah

Vice President Gerald Ford's son John says he doesn't think his father will run for president.

The younger Ford, a forestry student at Utah State University, said he worked for President Nixon's reelection in 1972. "But of late, I have become disillusioned with him," he said in an interview in the Salt Lake City Tribune yesterday.

John, 22, said he did not believe his father would run for president. "There is no way I want to get into politics and I can't think of anything worse than my father going through a national campaign.
