

Michigan Candidate For Subpoena

Bad Axe, Mich.

The political euphoria created in Michigan's "Thumb" region by President Nixon's Wednesday visit was deflated somewhat yesterday when the man Mr. Nixon came to stump for turned on the President over the tapes controversy.

Reacting to the issuance of a subpoena by the House Judiciary Committee for 41 White House Tapes, Republican congressional candidate James M. Sparling Jr. said the committee had his "wholehearted support."

United Press