

And Prosecution See Judge

Defense and prosecution attorneys in the criminal conspiracy trial of John M. Mitchell and Maurice H. Stans met in private yesterday in Federal District Court with Judge Lee Gagliardi to discuss undisclosed legal matters.

Presumably, the discussions included suggestions by both sides on the content of Judge Gagliardi's instructions to the jurors when the trial testimony is concluded.

The trial is in recess until Monday.

The judge informed the jury on Wednesday that testimony in the trial of the two former Cabinet officers, now in its eighth week, should be completed next Wednesday or Thursday.

Mr. Mitchell is a former Attorney General. Mr. Stans is a former Commerce Secretary.
