

SF Examiner APR 14 1974

Abplanalp's tax

returns open

NEW YORK — Robert Abplanalp, one of President Nixon's closest friends, said yesterday he would make his income tax returns available should special prosecutor Leon Jaworski seek them.

Abplanalp's statement was in response to a New York Times story saying his returns and those of another of Nixon's close friends, Charles "Bebe" Rebozo, were subpoenaed by Jaworski's office.