LOS ANGELES — About 4000 rallyists marched one mile from one city park to another yesterday afternoon on an "Impeach Nixon" campaign.

A police officer at a YMCA command post near MacArthur Park said the 1000 estimate was "generous."

He said the marchers, composed of 27 different organizations, including Cesar Chavez's United Farm Workers, had reserved an area of the park for an afternoon rally.

The officer said many marchers carried signs and a few carried the red flag of the UFW. The signs mostly said, "Impeach Nixon," and "Impeach Tricky Dick."
