

Network's

Offer to

Rodino

New York

NBC said last night it is inviting Chairman Peter W. Rodino Jr. of the House Judiciary Committee to respond tonight to President Nixon's televised address on providing edited transcripts of White House tapes to the committee.

In a telegram to Rodino, NBC News President Richard C. Wald said:

"In view of the nature of President Nixon's televised address this evening we invite you to appear on the NBC television and radio network at 8 to 8:30 p.m. tomorrow (today) to express your views as chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary on the position taken by the President. I would appreciate an early reply."

Associated Press