

Hot On the Presses

New York

Three publishers are rushing into print with paperback books containing the text of the transcripts of President Nixon's Watergate tapes.

All of the editions are promised for "next week," and all will contain the complete text as edited and released by the President and published by the Government Printing Office.

Dell Books and Bantam Books will publish 700-page editions in the usual paperback format, with pages about 5 by 7 inches, priced at $2.45 and $2.50 respectively.

MacMillan Inc. will publish the transcripts in a three-volume edition for $10.95. The soft-cover volumes will have pages 8½ by 11 inches, the same size as the one-volume $12.50 edition published by the Government Printing Office in Washington this week.

New York Times